

J.G.A. Pocock (1924-2023)

a centenary colloquium

Saturday 9 March 2024

Parliament Hall, University of St Andrews (map).

Session 1 (chair: Karen O'Brien) 10 - 11.15

10.05 – 10.15 Jamie Eng 'Pocock as a teacher in New Zealand: a family reminiscence'

10.15 – 10.35 Colin Kidd, 'Feudal Law: a semi-neglected theme in early modern political thought'

10.35 – 10.55 Euan McArthur, 'The Ancient Constitution and the Udal Law'

11.15 – 11.30 Coffee

Session 2 (chair: Emma Macleod) 11.30 – 1.00

11.30 – 11.50 Richard Fisher: 'Publishing Pocock'

11.50 – 12.10 Jacqueline Rose, 'The Language of Counsel in the Atlantic Archipelago'

12.10 – 12.30 Ian McBride, 'Pocock and Ireland'

1.00 – 2.00 Lunch

Session 3 (chair: Roger Mason) 2.00 – 3.00 pm

2.00 – 2.20 Valerie Wallace, 'Two Treaties: 1707 and Waitangi'

2.20 – 2.40 John Robertson, 'Political Thought and History, two Pocockian Enquiries, or One?'

3.00 – 3.20 Tea

Session 4 (chair: Thomas Ahnert) 3.20 – 4.30

3.20 – 3.40 Brian Young, 'Pocock, Meinecke and the Machiavellian Moment'

3.40 – 4.00 Richard Whatmore, 'Pocock and Post-Utrecht Europe'

4.00 – 4.30 Concluding Discussion